

General conditions

Stable and mostly sunny up to Sunday thanks to temporary high pressure. From Monday the passing over of a disturbance will determine a worsening of the weather conditions with rainshowers.

Afternoon/Evening of Saturday 31

Mostly clear except for harmless clouds over the mountains.

Sunday 1

Sky conditions: Mostly clear or scarcely cloudy over the mountains.

Precipitations: None. Chance of short rainshowers or thunderstorms on Northern Dolomites in the afternoon/evening.

Temperatures: Rising temperatures.

Winds in the mountain: Mostly Westerly light/moderate winds.

Winds in the plain: Southerly light winds, breezes along the coast.

Sea conditions: Mostly calm.

Monday 2

Sky conditions: Clear or scarcely cloudy sky in the morning, then increasing cloudiness starting from Northern areas.

Precipitations: In the second part of the day, starting from Northern areas, chance of scattered rainshowers, mostly thundershowers and thunderstorms.

Temperatures: Further rising, except for falling high temperatures on the mountains.

Winds:

Tuesday 3

Mostly cloudy with widespread rainshowers during the night and in the morning, mostly thundershowers and thunderstorms. Falling high temperatures, slightly rising low temperatures. Mostly North-easterly moderate winds, stronger along the coast.
